

Lance Boldt

Lance Boldt is vice president and co-founder of AutoNetTV Media, Inc. He is involved in the creative side of AutoNetTV's video productions as a producer and chief writer. Boldt is responsible for web initiatives, internet marketing and keeps a keen eye out for business development opportunities. He serves on the board of directors and is a group facilitator for Canary Garden, a community based non-profit organization providing grief support for children, teenagers and adults. He is actively involved with the Boy Scouts of America. Boldt and his wife Nancy have seven children and live in Alpine, Utah.

www.AutoNetTV.com